

Academy Policy:
Staff caring for children outside the Academy

Child Development Academy prohibits all staff including graduate assistants and work studies from caring for children outside of the Academy. The Academy does not assume any liability whatsoever related to such activities. For purposes of this policy, caring for children outside the Academy includes but is not limited to babysitting for children enrolled in the Academy inside or outside the child's home. In order to ensure that the center does not incur liability in relation to such practices, parents are asked to sign the release of liability set forth herein.

Release of Liability

We _____ (parent) and _____
(parent) understand and agree that the Child Development Academy will not assume any liability whatsoever of any kind or nature relating to staff members caring for my child(ren) outside the Academy.
