AVIATION MANAGEMENT

The Department of Management and Health Care Administration offers a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree in Aviation Management that prepares students to assume positions in a wide assortment of non-flight careers within the aviation industry, including airline operations, air transportation, airport management, airport consulting, aircraft manufacturing, sales, and aviation insurance. Students completing the program may be employed by regional and national airport facilities, airlines, commercial courier services, private aircraft operations, aircraft manufacturers, and similar organizations. With two regional airports servicing the immediate area: Yeager Airport in Charleston, WV, and Tri-State Airport in Huntington, WV, the major will offer experiential learning opportunities including internships, guest speakers, and other real-world projects and learning.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors fit your talents and interests and consider job shadowing opportunities.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Sign up for Handshake! Handshake is the #1 place to launch a career with no connections, experience, or luck required. The platform connects up-and-coming talent with 650,000+ employers.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Volunteer for causes that you are passionate about such as animal rescue, 5ks to support medical research, or mentoring local youth.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's campus.

Meet with your academic advisor to ensure that you are informed about prerequisites and courses that are only offered one time a year.

National Student Exchange: Study away for one semester and gain a different perspective. Choose from institutions across the US, US territories, or Canada.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Consider joining a business-focused student organization to maximize your opportunities for networking and building leadership skills.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Join professional associations in your field, like the Society for Advancement of Management.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

YEAR FOUR

Apply for graduation! It's finally here! Go online and complete your graduation application. Need help? See your advisor.

Consider the 3+2 program if you'd like to earn both your bachelor's and master's degrees in less time overall.

Check with your advisor to see if you qualify to graduate with honors.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Earn your Business Professionalism Certificate by attending speaker events and skill workshops offered by the Lewis College of Business.

Attend Countdown to Commencement. This is a one stop shop for all things graduation at Marshall! Keep an eye out for this event.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
