MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives required depends on the number of hours completed in STA (150 or 150B) and ENG (101 or 101P) and the number of hours that can be double-counted toward multiple degree requirements.
- ECN/FIN Electives can be any 300 or 400 level ECN or FIN courses not already required (except ECN 490 Internship and FIN 490 Internship). One elective must be at the 400 level.
- The International Business Elective can be met by taking one of the following courses: ECN 408, 420, 421, 460, FIN 440, MGT 445, or MKT 371. ECN 408, 420, 421, 460, or FIN 440 CANNOT count as both the International Business Elective and an ECN/FIN Elective.
- The Communication Studies Elective can be met by taking one of the following courses: CMM 302, 308, 315, 319, or 322.
- ECN 466 is the capstone course for all Economics majors. It can only be taken during the senior year after all prerequisites are met.
- Multicultural or International additional university requirement met with International Business Elective.
- Please check with advisor about course offerings. Not all classes will be offered every semester.

ECONOMICS

The Division of Finance and Economics offers a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree in Economics. Economics studies the choices that individuals, businesses, and government make when faced with unlimited wants and limited resources. In the program, you will learn how to better understand, analyze, and take action on these interrelationships. You will be taught how to communicate economic ideas and analysis through written and oral presentations and use quantitative techniques and problem solving skills that you learn in order to develop a research project involving economic analysis.

Colleges and specific programs may have unique requirements that are more stringent than those noted above. Students are responsible for staying informed about and ensuring that they meet the requirements for graduation.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors fit your talents and interests and consider job shadowing opportunities.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Sign up for Handshake! Handshake is the #1 place to launch a career with no connections, experience, or luck required. The platform connects up-and-coming talent with 650,000+ employers.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Volunteer for causes that you are passionate about such as animal rescue, 5ks to support medical research, or mentoring local youth.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's campus.

Meet with your academic advisor to ensure that you are informed about prerequisites and courses that are only offered one time a year.

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

National Student Exchange: Study away for one semester and gain a different perspective. Choose from institutions across the US, US territories, or Canada.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Consider joining a business-focused student organization to maximize your opportunities for networking and building leadership skills.

Consider taking some extra classes in math, statistics, or political science to prepare for graduate school or law school.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Networking is key! Attend a Career Expo to seek employment opportunities and network with employers in your field.

Have you considered adding a minor? Think about personal areas of interest you'd like to explore or how you might enhance your major with a related skill set.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

YEAR FOUR

Apply for graduation! It's finally here! Go online and complete your graduation application. Need help? See your advisor.

Consider the 3+2 program if you'd like to earn both your bachelor's and master's degrees in less time overall.

Check with your advisor to see if you qualify to graduate with honors.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Earn your Business Professionalism Certificate by attending speaker events and skill workshops offered by the Lewis College of Business.

Attend Countdown to Commencement. This is a one stop shop for all things graduation at Marshall! Keep an eye out for this event.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
