MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives required depends on the number of hours completed in STA (150 or 150B) and ENG (101 or 101P) and the number of hours that can be double-counted toward multiple degree requirements.
- FIN 475 is the capstone course for all IB majors. It can only be taken during the senior year after all prerequisites are met.
- ECN 460 must be taken to meet the International Business Elective.
- The Communication Studies Elective can be met by taking one of the following courses: CMM 302, 308, 315, 319, or 322.
- Please check with advisor about course offerings. Not all classes will be offered every semester.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

The Department of Finance, Economics, and International Business offers a Bachelor of Business Administration degree (BBA) in International Business. International Business focuses on cross-border commerce and the legal requirements and trade regulations in the country where you are doing business. You will learn to understand the competitive global landscape of business and understand the impact international trade has on domestic and foreign markets.

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS – 2023-2024

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Take a career self-assessment to help determine what majors fit your talents and interests and consider job shadowing opportunities.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Join or create a club or organization on campus about a particular issue you care about. Marshall has more than 200 student organizations.

Sign up for Handshake! Handshake is the #1 place to launch a career with no connections, experience, or luck required. The platform connects up-and-coming talent with 650,000+ employers.

YEAR THREE

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

Consider joining the International Business Club to maximize your opportunities for networking and build leadership skills.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities? Talk to a faculty member about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Talk to your academic advisor about the opportunity to complete minors like Economics, Finance, and International Affairs!

Volunteer for causes that you are passionate about such as animal rescue, 5ks to support medical research, or mentoring local youth.

Work with a faculty mentor to determine what professional certifications are available to assist you in meeting your career goals.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

Take a Community Based Learning (CBL) class that connects course content to the community. Stay engaged and make a difference.

Run for Student Government and represent your fellow students while making a longterm difference on Marshall's campus.

Meet with your academic advisor to ensure that you are informed about prerequisites and courses that are only offered one time a year.

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

Consider studying abroad in the summer, during Spring Break, or for an entire semester.

Meet with a career education specialist to conduct a "gap analysis." Figure out the skills you'll need for the career you want while you still have time to build them.

YEAR FOUR

Apply for graduation! It's finally here! Go online and complete your graduation application. Need help? See your advisor.

Consider the 3+2 program if you'd like to earn both your bachelor's and master's degrees in less time overall.

Check with your advisor to see if you qualify to graduate with honors.

Don't enter your field with zero experience! Secure an internship related to your field of study.

Earn your Business Professionalism Certificate by attending speaker events and skill workshops offered by the Lewis College of Business.

Attend Countdown to Commencement. This is a one stop shop for all things graduation at Marshall! Keep an eye out for this event.

Be at the top of your professional game! Prepare a final resume and practice your interview skills with a career coach in Career Education.
