MAJOR INFORMATION

- The total number of free electives will depend on the amount of double and triple counting of requirements.
- See course attributes each semester for courses that meet multiple requirements.
- Questions about requirements should be directed to the College of Liberal Arts (304-696-2350). Core II and COLA requirements may not be double counted.
- Students must earn a C or better in ENG 201 and all foreign language courses.
- Forty-eight credit hours (sixteen 3-hour courses) must be at the 300/400 level.
- Minimum of 120 hours to graduate.
- The B.A. in Latin can be acquired through the College of Liberal Arts. The degree consists of Classics 436 (Roman Civilization) or equivalent and thirty hours of Latin, eighteen of which must be above Latin 204.
- In addition to the specific major requirements, students must fulfill the general and specific requirements for the B.A. degree in the College of Liberal Arts and must demonstrate a proficiency in writing through examination by the department.
- Latin Capstone Experience: The Latin Capstone Experience consists of LAT 499, Senior Project, a three credit-hour course in which the student works with a project director to develop a paper written in an advanced Latin class into an expanded version that incorporates primary and secondary sources, and will be delivered in a public forum.

Milestone Course: This is a key success marker for your major. See your advisor to discuss the importance of this course in your plan of study.

LATIN

The study of foreign languages emphasizes the development of critical thinking skills—increased powers of observation, analysis, logical reasoning, memory, and adaptability—that are immediately transferable to other areas of higher education and to a diversity of careers. In learning to understand, speak, read, and write a foreign language a student acquires direct access to another view of the world at a time when intercultural understanding, at both the national and international levels, has become an urgent priority.

YEAR ONE

Have questions? Need to talk? You already have a Friend-At-Marshall ready to help you succeed. Find your FAM Peer Mentor here: www.marshall.edu/fam

Stay on the Herd Path and come to class! Class attendance is more important to your success than your high school GPA, your class standing, or your ACT/SAT scores.

In order to graduate on time, you need to take an average of 15 credits per semester. Are you on track? Take 15 to Finish!

Don't forget, it will take 4 full years to complete the Latin Major, start early, keep it up! Have you considered Ancient Greek? We teach that on a 2 year rotation. Get it when it comes up!

Explore peer leadership opportunities through the FAM program, or apply to be a UNI Peer Mentor.

Join the Classical Association and meet other students like you.

Develop relationships with professors who can serve as future references by attending their office hours.

YEAR THREE

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

Become an officer in the Classical Association and Eta Sigma Phi.

Consider studying abroad for a summer, semester, or year. Archaeological excavations are an excellent way to learn about the ancient world, meet students from around the world, and learn material culture.

Apply for the Maier Scholarship, it's only open to Latin Majors. Keep your Latin G.P.A. up. Applications are in the spring.

Consider giving a presentation at an off-campus undergraduate conference or a regional conference. Classicists are nice and you can get your ideas out there.

Want to continue your education and increase your opportunities for career advancement? Talk to our Graduate Director about whether graduate school fits your career goals.

Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Junior Eval to make sure you know what requirements you have left.

YEAR TWO

Are you completing enough credits to graduate on time? Dropping or failing a class can put you behind. Use summer terms to quickly get back on track.

No need to wait until graduate school. Discuss undergraduate research opportunities with faculty in your major right now.

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

Take a pulse check. Know what you need to do every year to keep your grants, scholarships, or federal financial aid.

Think about grad school. You'll need to take Greek and other Classical Culture classes. Consider German or French as well.

Consider studying abroad for a summer, semester, or year. Archaeological excavations are an excellent way to learn about the ancient world, meet students from around the world, and learn material culture.

When nominated, join Eta Sigma Phi, the national Classics Honorary.

YEAR FOUR

Did you do really well in a hard course? Become a Tutor or a Supplemental Instructor.

Take an elective course that links diversity to your field of study.

Consider giving a presentation at an off-campus undergraduate conference or a regional conference. Classicists are nice and you can get your ideas out there.

This is it! Are you on track to graduate? Meet with your advisor for your Senior Eval to see what requirements you have left.

Join professional organizations and see the cutting edge of the field. CAMWS, WCC, LCC are all good and inexpensive for students.

Prepare to present at the COLA Undergraduate Research and Creativity Conference in April

Apply for the Maier Scholarship, it's only open to Latin Majors. Keep your Latin G.P.A. up. Applications are in the spring.
